

SQUAD DESIGNATED MARKSMAN TRAIN THE TRAINER

1. Here are the dates for FY06 SDM trainers at Ft Benning GA:
SDM 1-06: OCT 17-21 2005

SDM 2-06: OCT 24-28 2005(change 1)

SDM 3-06: DEC 5-9 2005

SDM 4-06: JAN 23-27 2006

SDM 5-06: FEB 6-10 2006
2. To be eligible the soldier must be an E5 or above or an E4 in a leadership position. Deploying units get priority.
3. To get a seat the unit S3 must request it via email with the soldier's full name, rank, SSN and unit POC name and phone number.
4. We supply the DM rifle and ammunition, the soldier must bring an ACOG that they will use when deploying.
5. The recommended items of clothing are: sufficient military uniforms (BDUs) for one week of range firing, wet & cold weather gear, prescription glasses and/or contact lenses, ID card, M16 cleaning kit, personnel hygiene items for one week, and civilian clothes.
6. Each student is responsible for lodging and personal transportation. Transportation to and from the range will be provided by the USAMU.
7. If you desire a DM trainer at your home station, you must have a KD range up to 500 yards, you will provide rifles, ACOGs and ammunition (600 rounds per student). You must also provide a classroom large enough for the amount of students you will have. You will also have to provide funding for 4 USAMU instructors. You will request the trainer via email and we will negotiate the dates with you via phone with the DM rifle team leader.
8. POC will be Mike Behnke, USAMU chief of competitions, email michael.behnke@usaac.army.mil.

//S//

Mike Behnke
USAMU Chief of Competitions

